Introduction:

Knaresborough Town Council owns two telephone boxes situated in the Market Place; both are available, free of charge, for use by local community groups – for example as a resource for sharing and displaying information, communicating results of any project work, and encouraging community ideas/involvement for their group.

Each telephone box will be available for a period of no less than three months and any group wishing to consider making use of this space should initially contact Councillor Hannah Gostlow

(contact details: hannah.gostlow@knaresboroughtowncouncil.gov.uk)

or Councillor Shan Oakes

(contact details: shan.oakes@knaresboroughtowncouncil.gov.uk)
